Højgaard Industri awarded new management contract with Banedanmark

Højgaard Holdings' subsidiary Højgaard Industri A/S has been awarded a new management contract with Banedanmark for the production of concrete sleepers at the facility in Fredericia owned by Banedanmark for the period 1 March 2012 to 29 February 2016 with an option for Banedanmark to extend the contract until 28 February 2018.

Højgaard Industri has won the contract after having participated in Banedanmark's contract award procedure. The current contract expires on 29 February 2012. We look forward to continuing the long-term good working relationship with Banedanmark.

The contract is expected to make a positive contribution to the Højgaard Holding group's earnings in the coming years.

Best regards,
Højgaard Holding A/S
