Højgaard Industri awarded new management contract with Banedanmark

Højgaard Holdings subsidiary Højgaard Industri A/S has been awarded a new management contract with Banedanmark for the production of concrete sleepers at the facility in Fredericia owned by Banedanmark for the period 1 January 2019 to 31 December 2022 with an option for Banedanmark to extend the contract with two times two year.

Højgaard Industri has won the contract after having participated in Banedanmark's contract award procedure. The current contract expires on 31 December 2018. We look forward to continuing the long-term good working relationship with Banedanmark.

The contract is expected to make a positive contribution to the Højgaard Holding group's earnings in the coming years.

Yours faithfully,
Højgaard Holding A/S
